Hey Mick and Cindy – wanted to share another student thought about our classes. We are making a big difference and reaching many students with opportunity to create very special entrepreneurs. Have a great weekend!

David, wanted to share some thoughts I had after class yest. This is something I wrote down- "What I am learning through this class, is the idea that we can have a passion for something, yet we might not delve deep enough into the why piece. As we allow ourselves to go bigger, the innovation naturally follows. As a result these ideas are enriching my life on many expansive levels. Go big or go home!" :)

It feels amazing to finally take a class that is directing my passions and goals! Thank you for adding phenomenal value through your mission! Words can barely express how gratefull I am for you and this program!
